1. The Polish ship M/S WARTA was scheduled to leave for China, probably Tientsin, sometime in July 1950. Her cargo was loaded on Eva Island in Stettin. This cargo consisted ostensibly of canned goods but it actually was made up of Czech machine guns which were being camouflaged to look like ordinary cargo.
2. A Chinese ship was expected in Gdansk soon, and it will also carry a shipment of arms to China.
